

Data Protection and Privacy Policy

Long-term Teachers is a recruitment business which provides work-finding services to its clients and work-seekers. The Company must process personal data (including sensitive personal data) so that it can provide these services – in doing so, Long-term Teachers acts as a data controller.

You may give your personal details to the Company directly, such as on an application or registration form or via our website, or we may collect them from another source such as a jobs board. The Company must have a legal basis for processing your personal data. For the purposes of providing, you with work-finding services and/or information relating to roles relevant to you we will only use your personal data in accordance with this privacy statement. At all times we will comply with current data protection laws.

Contents

1. Collection and use of personal data
 - a) Purpose of processing and legal basis
 - b) Legitimate interest
 - c) Statutory/contractual requirement
 - d) Recipients of data
2. Information to be provided when data is not collected directly from the data subject
 - a) Categories of data
 - b) Sources of data
3. Overseas transfers
4. Data retention
5. Your rights
6. Cookies
7. Login files
8. Links to external sites
9. Sale of the business
10. Data security
11. Changes to this privacy statement
12. Complaints or queries

1: Collection and use of personal data

a. Purpose of processing and legal basis

Long-term Teachers will collect your personal data (which may include sensitive personal data) and will process your personal data for the purposes of providing you with work-finding services. This includes for example, contacting you about job opportunities, assessing your suitability for those opportunities, updating our databases, putting you forward for job opportunities, arranging payments to you and developing and managing our services and relationship with you and our clients.

In some cases, we may be required to use your data for the purpose of investigating, reporting, and detecting crime and to comply with laws that apply to us. We may also use your information during internal audits to demonstrate our compliance with certain industry standards.

We must have a legal basis to process your personal data. The legal bases we rely upon to offer our work-finding services to you are:

- Your consent
- Where we have a legitimate interest
- To comply with a legal obligation that we have
- To fulfil a contractual obligation that we have with you

b. Legitimate interest

This is where the Company has a legitimate reason to process your data provided it is reasonable and does not go against what you would reasonably expect from us. Where the Company has relied on a legitimate interest to process your personal data our legitimate interests is/are as follows:

- We deem that by providing us with your personal details/CV either through an application for a vacancy or generally registering you on our website you are actively seeking work or;
- By posting your personal details/CV on a jobs board you are actively soliciting perspective employers and;
- We will only use your personal details to solicit business from clients who we deem match your desired criteria and;
- Will only retain personal information which we deem integral to successfully canvassing and securing work on your behalf and;
- We will only share with our clients information which is deemed essential for the satisfaction of safeguarding purposes.

c. Statutory/contractual requirement

The Company has certain legal and contractual requirements to collect personal data (e.g. to comply with the Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, immigration and tax legislation, and in some circumstances safeguarding requirements.) Our clients may also require this personal data, and/or we may need your data to enter a contract with you. If you do not give us the personal data, we need to collect we may not be able to continue to provide work-finding services to you.

d. Recipient/s of data

The Company will process your personal data and/or sensitive personal data with the following recipients:

- Schools, academies, colleges, nurseries, and other education providers
- Our carefully chosen payroll providers
- Our accountants for tax and payroll purposes
- Carefully selected third-party organisations for the purpose of work finding, such as online portals or HR/recruitment organisations working on behalf of schools
- Website, IT and internet hosting companies.

2: Information to be provided when data is not collected directly from the data subject

a. Categories of data

During it completing its work-finding duties, Long-term Teacher might collect some or all of the following personal data on you:

Personal data:

- Name, address, mobile no., email, Zoom ID
- National insurance no.
- Nationality (through right to work check)
- Occupation and previous work history

Sensitive personal data:

- Health information including whether you have a disability.
- Criminal conviction

The Company may source your personal data from areas including:

- From a jobs board such as CV Library, Indeed or a professional networking site such as LinkedIn
- A former employer
- A referee whose details you previously provided to us

This information will not have come from a publicly accessible source.

3. Overseas Transfers

The Company may transfer only the information you provide to us to countries outside the European Economic Area ('EEA') for the purposes of providing you with work-finding services. This will only take place with your explicit, informed consent. We will take steps to ensure adequate protections are in place to ensure the security of your information. The EEA comprises the EU member states plus Norway, Iceland, and Liechtenstein.

4. Data retention

The Company will retain your personal data only for as long as is necessary for the purpose we collect it. Different laws may also require us to keep different data for different periods of time. For example, the Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, require us to keep work-seeker records for at least one year from (a) the date of their creation or (b) after the date on which we last provide you with work-finding services.

We must also keep your payroll records, holiday pay, sick pay, and pensions auto-enrolment records for as long as is legally required by HMRC and associated national minimum wage, social security and tax legislation. This is currently 3 to 6 years.

Where the Company has obtained your consent to process your personal and sensitive data, we will do so in line with our retention policy. Upon expiry of that period the Company will seek further consent from you. Where consent is not granted the Company will cease to process your personal and sensitive data.

5. Your rights

Please be aware that you have the following data protection rights:

- The right to be informed about the personal data the Company processes on you;
- The right of access to the personal data the Company processes on you;
- The right to rectification of your personal data;
- The right to erasure of your personal data in certain circumstances;
- The right to restrict processing of your personal data;
- The right to data portability in certain circumstances;
- The right to object to the processing of your personal data that was based on a public or legitimate interest;
- The right not to be subjected to automated decision making and profiling; and
- The right to withdraw consent at any time.

Where you have consented to the Company processing your personal and sensitive you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time by contacting Matt Limmer on 0117 3362606 or by emailing matt@longtermteachers.co.uk . Please note that if you withdraw your consent to further processing that does not affect any processing done prior to the withdrawal of that consent, or which is done according to another legal basis.

There may be circumstances where the Company will still need to process your data for legal or official reasons. Where this is the case, we will tell you and we will restrict the data to only what is necessary for those specific reasons.

If you believe that any of your data that the Company processes is incorrect or incomplete, please contact us using the details above and we will take reasonable steps to check its accuracy and correct it where necessary.

You can also contact us using the above details if you want us to restrict the type or amount of data we process for you, access your personal data or exercise any of the other rights listed above.

6. Cookies

We may obtain data about you from cookies. These are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites that you visit. They are widely used to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site. Cookies also enable us to deliver more personalised content.

The table below explains the cookies we use and why.

| Cookie Name | Name Purpose | More information |
|-------------|--|--------------------------|
| XSRF-TOKEN | Used for Security | Only used during session |
| bSession | Used for system effectiveness measurement | Expires after 30 minutes |
| hs | Used for security reasons | Only used during session |
| svSession | Used in connection with user login | Expires after 2 years |
| _ga | Used to identify unique users | Expires after 2 years |
| _gid | Installed by Google Analytics. Used to store information of how visitors use a website | |

Most web browsers allow some control of most cookies through the browser settings.. Please note that in a few cases some of our website features may not function if you remove cookies from your browser.

7. Login Files

We use IP addresses to analyse trends, administer the site, track users' movements, and to gather broad demographic information for aggregate use. IP addresses are not linked to personally identifiable information.

8. Links to external websites

The Company's website may contain links to other external websites. Please be aware that the Company is not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites. When you leave our site, we encourage you to read the privacy statements of each website that collects personally identifiable information. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by the Company's website.

9. Sale of business

If the Company's business is sold or integrated with another business your details may be disclosed to our advisers and any prospective purchasers and their advisers and will be passed on to the new owners of the business.

10. Data Security

The Company takes every precaution to protect our users' information. We employ security measures in relation to the personal data processed including firewalls, browser certification technology, encryption, limited access and use of passwords to keep your data as safe as possible. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, consultants, our accounts clerk, or a marketing assistant) are granted access to your information. The Company uses all reasonable efforts to safeguard your personal information. However, you should be aware that the use of email/ the Internet is not entirely secure and for this reason the Company cannot guarantee the security or integrity of any personal information which is transferred from you or to you via email/ the Internet.

If you share a device with others, we recommend that you do not select the "remember my details" function when that option is offered.

If you have any questions about the security at our website, you can email Tom Griffiths at tom@longtermteachers.co.uk

11. Changes to this privacy statement

We will update this privacy statement from time to time. We will post any changes on the statement with revision dates. If we make any material changes, we will notify you.

12. Complaints or queries

If you wish to complain about this privacy notice or any of the procedures set out in it, please contact: Matt Limmer on 01173362606 or by emailing matt@longtermteachers.co.uk

You also have the right to raise concerns with Information Commissioner's Office on 0303 123 1113 or at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>, or any other relevant supervisory authority should your personal data be processed outside of the UK, if you believe that your data protection rights have not been adhered to.